

In the country of England, UK there was a little cottage, just off the sea. Outside was 2 little tabby cats and 2 Labradors, only 3 years old each. There was a big pretty flowered garden and a picket fence, with a little round fence door that opened to a pathway to the front door. The door was old oak wood that had been vanished to perfection. The roof was thatched and inside was a massive kitchen leading on to the back room with a dining table and tiled floor. The living room was huge with a 3 seater sofa and a 30 inch TV. Upstairs there was 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, one with a shower and one with a bath. All in all, this house was super clean, well loved & looked almost new, even if it was over a hundred years old.
